FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FAYE HENRIS JOINS TEOCO AS A GENERAL MANAGER

Fairfax, Va., 11 March 2010 – TEOCO, the leading provider of network cost optimization solutions to communications service providers worldwide, continues its practice of hiring the most experienced professionals in telecom with the addition of Faye Henris. Ms. Henris will be joining TEOCO as a General Manager focused on Account Management.

Prior to joining TEOCO, Ms. Henris worked at MCI Communications Corporation where she held positions within the departments of Finance, Network Services, Network Operations and Regulatory. Ms. Henris left MCI to found TeleCon, LLC, and served as its President and Managing Partner until sold in 2000 to Information View Solutions. TeleCon provided consulting and outsourcing solutions to help communications service providers minimize operational costs and maximize margins. Faye served as the COO and GM of the services division of the combined company (rebranded as Vibrant Solutions) until early 2002. Since 2002 Ms. Henris has been focused on her private consulting firm.

“We are very excited to have Ms. Henris join our team here at TEOCO” said TEOCO Vice President and General Manager, John Devolites. “With the addition of Ms. Henris and the industry expertise she brings, we not only add value to TEOCO, but to all of our customers as well.”

Ms. Henris is an honors graduate of The George Washington University with Bachelors of Science Degrees in Finance and Math.
