

TEOCO HOSTS EIGHTH ANNUAL CUSTOMER EVENT, THE COMMUNICATIONS AND ENTERTAINMENT SUMMIT 2007

FAIRFAX, VA – Sept. 18, 2007 —TEOCO Corporation, the #1 provider of highly-scalable network cost management, revenue assurance and business intelligence solutions to communications and entertainment firms worldwide, today announced that it is hosting its Communications & Entertainment Summit on September 18-19, 2007 at the Tower Club in Vienna, VA. This year marks TEOCO's eighth annual invitation-only customer event.

The two-day Summit provides a venue for TEOCO to bring together its customers, which currently include nearly forty North American service providers, including the world's top communications providers, all top U.S. carriers and most major North American cable operators. TEOCO is hosting approximately sixty service provider representatives.

“This has been a year of transformation and rapid growth for TEOCO, as we have worked to advance our core solutions, build out new offerings and expand our geographic footprint.” said John Devolites, Vice President at TEOCO. “We look to our Communications & Entertainment Summit as an annual opportunity to educate our diverse customer base on both TEOCO solutions and industry trends, as well as gain customer perspective to help shape our offering portfolio.”

This year's event marks the first Summit since TEOCO's acquisition of Vibrant Solutions in late 2006 and provides a venue for TEOCO to present its expanded solution set which capitalizes on the strengths of both companies. The Summit includes informative presentations by TEOCO's solution experts as well as practical sessions to help service providers move their network cost management, revenue assurance, and business intelligence practices from insight to action. TEOCO welcomes two noted knowledge leaders as speakers, including Tom Goode, General Counsel for the Alliance for Telecommunications Industry Solutions (ATIS), and Richard Hackathorn, President of Bolder Technologies.
